

The Worship of God

July 22, 2018

My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.

—2 Corinthians 12. 9

†Responsive Psalm 123

Terri Vancil

To you I lift up my eyes,
to you enthroned in the heavens!
As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters,
and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,

so our eyes look to you, O Lord our God, until you show us your mercy.

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy for we have had more than enough of contempt.

Our soul has had more than its fill of the scorn of those who are at ease,
of the contempt of the proud.

Congregational Verse

During the congregational verse, children ages four through first grade may attend junior church and return to the sanctuary after the sermon.

Ho-ly words long pre-served for our walk in this world, they re - sound with God's own heart; O let the an-cient words im - part.

An-cient words ev-er true, chang-ing me and chang-ing you;

†Congregational Response

HYFRYDOL

*Jesus! I do now receive him, more than all in him I find,
he has granted me forgiveness,
I am his, and he is mine.*

*Hallelujah! What a Savior!
Hallelujah! What a Friend!
Saving, helping, keeping, loving,
he is with me to the end.*

†Organ Voluntary

The sanctuary flowers are given to the glory of God in memory of Alice and Joel Radcliffe by their daughter, Mary.

Guests are warmly welcomed today. There are several ways during the worship hour that we can become better acquainted. During the Words of Friendship we will share a personal greeting with those sitting around us. You will find a Connection Card in the bulletin that can be filled out and dropped in the offering plate as it is passed in the service. Ministers will also be greeting worshippers at each exit door after the service.
