†Responsive Psalm 27.1, 4-9

Laura and Patrick Cashwell

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?

One thing I ask of the Lord,
this only do I seek:

that I may dwell in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life,
to gaze on the beauty of the Lord
and to seek God in the temple.

For in the day of trouble God will give me shelter;
hide me in the hidden places of the sanctuary,
and raise me high upon a rock.

Even now my head is lifted up above my enemies who surround me.

Therefore I will offer sacrifice in the sanctuary,
sacrifices of rejoicing;
I will sing and make music to the Lord.

Hear my voice when I call, Lord;
be merciful to me and answer me.

My heart speaks your message— “Seek my face!”
Your face, Lord, I will seek.

Do not hide your face from me,
do not turn your servant away in anger;

you have been my helper.
Do not reject me or forsake me, God my Savior.

Come to the Water
Sanctuary Choir, Levone Tobin Scott, piano

O let all who thirst, let them come to the water.
And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord:
without money, without price.
Why should you pay the price, except for the Lord?
And let all who toil, let them come to the water.
And let all who are weary, let them come to the Lord:
all who labor without rest.
How can your soul find rest, except for the Lord?
And let all the poor, let them come to the water.
Bring the ones who are laden, bring them all to the Lord:
bring the children without might.
Easy the load and light: come to the Lord.
Come to the water; come to the Lord.
